

□ A Note from Lisa

Welcome, and thank you for being here.

I'm Lisa Cooper — celebrant, poet, and founder of Tip Your Hat. Whether you're planning a wedding, a naming day, or a farewell, I'm honoured to help shape a ceremony that feels true to you.

My work is rooted in listening, storytelling, and quiet symbolism — crafting moments that invite reflection, connection, and grace. Every ceremony is bespoke, and every detail matters.

I'm here to help you feel calm, seen, and celebrated — with warmth, dignity, and a touch of sparkle.

Warmly,

Lisa

Let's Begin Your Ceremony Story

Every ceremony starts with a conversation — about what matters to you, what you'd like to include, and how you want it to feel.

Here are a few gentle prompts to help you reflect:

- What kind of ceremony are you planning?
(Wedding, farewell, naming day, vow renewal...)
- Are there any special people, places, or symbols you'd like to include?
(Family, flowers, music, readings, rituals...)
- What words describe how you want it to feel?
(Joyful, calm, playful, sacred, light-hearted...)
- Is there a story, memory, or moment that feels important to honour?

You don't need to have all the answers — just a starting point.
I'll guide you with warmth, clarity, and care.
